

Take charge of your Mental Health

As a busy student, it's always important to regularly evaluate your own mental health. Are you feeling sad or worried or stressed lately? Make sure to seek help when you need it. Take a moment to check in with yourself and learn about the many resources available to assist you.

SEEK HELP IF YOU'RE EXPERIENCING:

Thoughts about suicide

You have/had past, present, or future thoughts about dying.

Feeling isolated

You have lost motivation to do things. You may feel that you don't want to go out and want to spend most of your time alone.

Changes in school performance

You have lost interest in your education. You no longer make an effort to get passing grades, attend regularly, and/or participate in school activities/sports.

Loss of interest

You have lost interest in activities that used to give you pleasure: food, music, sports, art, school and/or other hobbies, etc.

Trouble focusing

You can't concentrate enough to do your usual tasks or follow conversations with friends or family.

Short temper

You're easily irritated and react negatively to people you care about.
